GENERAL & LIVESTOCK RULES & REGULATIONS

1. All Exhibitors agree to be bound by the rules and regulations of the Stoneboro Fair.
2. The Fair Management reserves the right to amend or add to these rules & regulations as its judgment may determine.
3. Reasonable care will be taken to protect all exhibits on display from all injury and damage but the Fair is not, in any way, to be held responsible for accidents, loss or damage by water, fire, theft or otherwise, whatever may be the cause or extent of the damage or loss.
4. Entries will be made according to classification.
5. Premiums, as listed, may be given for meritorious exhibits. In cases where there is no competition, judges may give an award such as they deem the exhibit is worthy to receive. The same rule applies where there are fewer entries in any class than the number of premiums offered. The Judges may, at their discretion, award a ribbon or rosette.

The Fair reserves the RIGHT TO DETERMINE how many entries they will accept from an Exhibitor in the same class or, in the case of livestock, the same breed, and poultry, the same species.

THE DECISION OF THE JUDGES SHALL BE FINAL IN ALL CASES except where mistakes, fraud, misrepresentation or collusion — not discovered at the time of the award - are proven. In such cases, the Superintendent, President, or Secretary of the Fair, or such referee as he/she may appoint, may make the decision. The case may be appealed to the Fair Management from whose decision there can be no appeal.

All protests regarding judging must be made in writing and must plainly state the cause of the complaint or appeal. Such protests must be filed at the Fair Office within 24 hours of the occurrence.

6. It shall be the responsibility of the Exhibitor TO NAME PROPERLY THE ARTICLE OR BREED OF LIVESTOCK he/she is entering. Any exhibit improperly entered will be disqualified to receive a prize, but the Judges will mark the correct name on the entry tag so the same mistake in entering will not be made the second time.

Every exhibit accepted for premiums must be given an entry tag which must be plainly marked. In cases of livestock, the breed name must be shown and in the case of poultry the species must be shown on cards that can be identified by viewers. Cards will be available at the Secretary's Office; the Exhibitor is responsible for securing, printing, and hanging cards. The award winners must be placed for show. Failure to comply with this regulation will result in forfeiture of premiums.

7. All entries must have been grown, produced, or made since the last Fair by the person whose name appears on the tag as Exhibitor.
8. Superintendents reserve the right to refuse any entry or bar from competition animals, vegetables, flowers, poultry, products, and manufactured articles of decidedly inferior quality and those not possessing sufficient merit to warrant recognition.

(The Superintendent must notify Exhibitors of any exhibits that have wilted or become unfit. After having done this, the Superintendent may dispose of the exhibit.)

9. The Fair Management may, at any time, order the removal of any exhibit or part of exhibit in bad condition, and any article unfit to show may be excluded. Food products cannot be polluted with any substances or chemicals that causes them to become poisonous and unfit to be used as food.

NO EXHIBIT MAY BE REMOVED AT ANY TIME BEFORE THE CLOSE OF THE FAIR EXCEPT BY CONSENT OF THE MANAGEMENT.

10. The Superintendents and/or Show Committee have the authority to require the animals to be shown to be inspected by the Judge.
11. During the judging, buildings (except livestock arenas) are to be closed to everyone except Fair Officials, Judges, and necessary attendants.

DEPARTMENT SUPERINTENDENTS MAY ENTER EXHIBITS IN THEIR OWN DEPARTMENTS, but neither they nor any other Exhibitor may communicate with the Judges during the time of determining the awards, except to answer questions proposed by Judges.

Any Exhibitor interfering with the Judges while making awards shall forfeit any premium for which she/he would otherwise have been entitled.
12. All livestock offered for premiums must have been the property of the owner for thirty (30) days or longer. (Livestock or poultry entered under a name other than the owner's shall be disqualified for premiums.)
13. No person shall be allowed in the ring while stock is being judged, except the Judge, Superintendents, necessary attendants, and Fair officials.
14. Should any animal awarded a prize be disqualified, the animals gaining the lower prizes shall move into the next higher position if, in the opinion of the Judges, the animals are worthy of such prizes.
15. Overfitting of cattle will be discriminated against. Any artificial means used to change the form or shape of the animal will disqualify the animal from competition.
16. When on exhibit in the ring, each animal must be under halter and under the control of the owner or the employee.
17. Joint ownership is considered to be as one owner in accordance with registration papers.
18. 4-H and F.F.A. livestock entries are limited to Mercer County residents only. An exception will be made in allowing out-of-county youth to exhibit in the 4-H showmanship.

An exception will be made in allowing out-of-county youth exhibiting Polled Hereford animals to compete in 4-H and F.F.A. as members of the Northwestern PA Polled Hereford Association.

ADVICE TO LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS

1. The deadline for entries is August 07, 2024. All Exhibitors must make advance entries. Please mail entry forms to The Great Stoneboro Fair, P.O. Box 215, Stoneboro, PA 16153.
2. All entries must be on forms provided by the Stoneboro Fair. Entry forms can be obtained by writing to Patty Adamson, Secretary, @ P.O. Box 215, Stoneboro, PA 16153 or Phone 724-376-2852 or downloaded from the Great Stoneboro Fair website www.stoneborofair.info.
3. There is to be only ONE entry number per person; be sure you show your number when showing.
4. Upon your arrival with stock, the Superintendent of the Department where you are an Exhibitor will assign the stalls your stock will occupy. DO NOT take space unless it is assigned to you. DO NOT ALTER ANY STALLS WITHOUT THE APPROVAL OF THE SUPERINTENDENT.
5. If you need any information about the Department, go to the Superintendent. The Superintendents will be found at or near their respective Departments and will assist you.
6. Superintendents in charge of Departments have the right to prescribe dimensions and regulate positions of all signs and direct the arrangement of articles to secure harmony and make an attractive appearance.
7. DO NOT lock your stables and leave the immediate area. Visitors pay to see your stock, and you are expected to show it.
8. All Exhibitors are to display a farm or owner's sign to identify their breed or breeds of dairy and livestock and must fill out a stall card to identify each exhibit. Exhibitors are responsible for posting these cards. This is required by the Department of Agriculture.
9. Labor Day is always crowded; however, livestock and dairy animals may be removed from the grounds after 7:00 PM on the last day of the Fair. Other exhibits may be removed at 8:00 PM.
10. ALL CAMPERs AND RECREATIONAL VEHICLES MUST BE PARKED IN DESIGNATED AREAS.
11. Absolutely NO raffles or games of chance are permitted in the barns.

HEALTH RULES AND REGULATIONS

All animals admitted to the Fair shall be identified by a unique and permanent ear tag, tattoo, brand, or records of unique physical attributes. Animals known to be infected with or exposed to any contagious, infectious, or external parasitic disease, and animals restricted by quarantine may not be presented for show purposes.

All animals admitted to the Fair must comply with applicable state (7PA Code) or federal (9CFR) rules.

Animals presented for exhibition will be subject to inspection by show officials and will be rejected if evidence of infectious, contagious, or parasitic disease is apparent or if health certification or identification documentation is not acceptable.

The Great Stoneboro Fair

All show animals should be held in isolation for at least 30 days after return to the herd of origin.

GUIDELINES FOR CARE OF ANIMALS

It is the responsibility of each Exhibitor to care for animals in a manner that is responsible and ethical. Following are some guidelines for the treatment of animals exhibited at the show.

- 1. Restraining Animals
 - a. Animals should be tied or penned in a manner that will not hurt the animal or restrict its breathing in any way.
 - b. Animals should be tied so that all four feet are firmly on the ground and they have enough room to stand comfortably and lie down.
 - c. Animals should be tied so that they are not able to injure animals tied near them.
 - d. Animals unaccustomed to each other should not be penned together.
- 2. Handling - Any type of rough handling which could harm the animal is prohibited. The use of whips, canes and show sticks should be restricted to showing only and then be used only to guide the animals, not punish them. Remember, animals will respond quicker and better to quiet, gentle handling, rather than loud, rough handling.
- 3. Bedding - All animals should have bedding that is dry and clean. Pens should be cleaned regularly to keep the animals clean and comfortable. If non-traditional bedding such as carpeting is used, it should be regularly cleaned (at least twice daily) to keep the pen free from manure.
- 4. Feeding & Water - Animals should be well-fed and have access to clean water regularly. Realizing that many market animals must have restricted amounts of feed to maintain the proper weight, animals must be fed adequate amounts of feed to meet the animal's basic requirements. Animals not allowed reasonable access to feed and water will be disqualified from the show.
- 5. Transportation - Animals should be transported in a way that is both safe and considerate of the animal's well-being.
- 6. Blanket/Sweat Collars - Any type of material such as blankets or sweat collars should be large enough to permit normal body functions such as breathing, eating, drinking, or lying down.
- 7. Health - It is the responsibility of the Exhibitors to provide proper health care for their animals through routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals. The improper or illegal use of drugs or antibiotics is prohibited. If medication is indicated, be sure to follow the label directions and allow more than the stated withdrawal time.

BIOSECURITY CHECKLIST FOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS

No visitors from a country that has animals infected with Foot and Mouth Disease have visited my farm within the previous 30 days.

Certificates of veterinary inspection are current for all of the animals I will be taking to the Fair. All equipment, such as buckets, pitchforks, shovels, rakes, wheelbarrows, manure baskets, lead ropes, halters, nose rings, snares, clippers, scissors, brushes, etc., has been cleaned and disinfected before entering the fairgrounds. (A solution of household bleach in water is recommended for disinfection purposes: add 2 gallons of bleach to 3 gallons of water for disinfecting equipment.)

- I have received a list of the recommended biosecurity precautions that I should follow after returning to the farm with the animals that were taken to the Fair.
- Any livestock showing signs of illness, including signs that suggest infection with Foot and Mouth Disease, will be reported immediately to the Livestock Superintendent of the Fair.
- Any questions about disease and biosecurity measures can be directed to the regional veterinarian or animal inspector, who will be visiting the Fairgrounds for daily inspections.

Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture regional veterinarians will be visiting each fair in Pennsylvania this season on a daily basis. They will be available to answer questions from Exhibitors and will be doing general inspections of the animals and animal facilities.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS FOR CATTLE

ALL ANIMAL ENTRIES ARE REQUIRED TO MEET THE 2024 PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE ANIMAL HEALTH REQUIREMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR ANIMALS FOR EXHIBITION AS LISTED IN THE BACK OF YOUR PREMIUM BOOK. ALL HORSES ALSO REQUIRE RABIES SHOTS.

Foot and Mouth Disease (FMD)

Foot and Mouth Disease (FMD) is an extremely contagious viral disease that affects cloven-hooved animals, especially domestic cattle, pigs, sheep, and goats. FMD is rarely fatal to infected adult animals, but causes pain and suffering to those animals, which leads to a severe drop in production. The disease can be devastating to the economy of an infected state and country.

The first signs of FMD in animals which are usually noticed:

Lameness

Decreased feed intake

Both are a result of pain from the blisters and sores caused by the virus.

Infection with FMD causes:

Blisters, Fever, Excessive Salivation, Abortions, Decreased Milk Production, Weight Loss

Disinfection

The virus that causes FMD can be inactivated by several disinfectants, including household bleach. It can be killed by extremes in PH (below ph6 and above ph1) by sunlight, and high temperatures, although the virus has been shown to survive single pasteurization at 161.6 degrees F (15 seconds). It can survive in the environment at freezing temperatures: It can survive in the soil for almost a month in cool weather; about three days during the sunny, summer months. It may even live in stored hay for up to four to five months in cool, dry conditions.

Transmission of Foot and Mouth Disease

Although Foot and Mouth Disease does not pose a serious risk to human health, humans can act as vectors for the virus and can spread infection among animals or between farms. Methods of transmission of FMD include:

Droplets: Direct contact with clinically ill, recovered (carrier) animals, or exposed vaccinated animals: Virus particles can be found in body fluids, including urine, feces, saliva, semen, and milk, and also in exhaled breath.

People: The FMD virus can survive in the lungs and nasal passages of humans for several days, and in the tonsils for several weeks. Virus particles are released and can infect susceptible animals when the person exhales.

Clothing: Virus particles can survive on contaminated clothing (the FMD virus can survive for several weeks on clothes and shoes, especially if these articles are dirty).

Other animals: Movement of pets or other animals through an infected area can spread the virus.

Food Products: Contaminated meat and cheese products can spread the virus.

Air: Airborne virus particles might be carried in air currents for up to 40 miles.

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING VEGETABLES

 - e. Condition and maturity. Be sure that exhibits are of high quality.

5. The recipe for the pie and pie crust must be submitted with the entry. It should be submitted on one side of 8 1/2" by 11" paper. NOTE; If an individual has already won 1st place at another Fair in 2024 for this Blue Ribbon Apple Pie contest, that individual is now considered qualified through that Fair to compete at the 2025 PA Farm Show and is no longer eligible to enter this contest at any upcoming Fairs.

PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

ANIMAL HEALTH REQUIREMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR ANIMAL EXHIBITION, INCLUDING COMMERCIAL EXHIBITION

SUBCHAPTER A: GENERAL INFORMATION SECTION

1. Background: This document provides the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture's (Department) animal health requirements and recommendations for all animal exhibitions (shows) in the Commonwealth, including Pennsylvania county and community fairs. This document is divided into Requirements and Recommendations for both Pennsylvania animals and animals arriving from out of state for each species. The Requirements listed in this document are mandated by law. The legal basis for these recommendations can be found at the end of the document in Subchapter D. Recommendations are not legally mandated but are based on best practices and the scientific judgement of the state animal health officials. Fairs are strongly encouraged to adopt these recommendations. Fairs may impose more stringent rules than the requirements in this document at their own discretion. All exhibitors are encouraged to check with the management of each fair in advance to ensure compliance with all fair requirements. While this document is designed for organizations receiving funding through the Pennsylvania Agricultural Fair Act (act of July 8, 1986, P.L. 437, No. 92)(3 P.S. §§ 1501- 1510), this document serves as a reference for all animal exhibits as defined in the Animal Exhibition Sanitation Act (3 Pa.C.S. §§ 2501-2504). These requirements and recommendations are a shared responsibility of show management and exhibitors to protect public and animal health in the Commonwealth.

2. Important information regarding poultry exhibition cancellations: Due to Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (HPAI) detections in the Commonwealth, a signed General Quarantine order went into effect on April 16th, 2022. The order, titled 52 Pa. B 2223 General Quarantine Order; Cancellation of Exhibition of Poultry and Their Hatching Eggs Due to Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza, prohibits the display, exhibit, or presence of poultry, poultry products, including eggs, poultry parts or any goods or items containing or made up of poultry products such as feathers, or poultry parts at any exhibitions or other such venues within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania which receive funding pursuant to the Pennsylvania Agricultural Fair Act 3 P.S. § 1501 et seq.

The quarantine order does not prohibit a fairgrounds from leasing the facilities for a private poultry show. Although this is not prohibited by the order, it is discouraged, especially in poultry-dense areas such as Lancaster, Lebanon, Chester, and Adams, York, Lehigh, Berks, Snyder, Northumberland, Juniata, and Union counties, or in any location near a commercial poultry facility. If avian influenza was identified in a bird that was at one of these private shows, the tracebacks would be extensive and could result in many flocks being quarantined and possibly infected. The fairgrounds would also have to be quarantined pending virus elimination on the grounds. For private events that do not meet the definition of "Animal Exhibition" under the Animal Exhibition Sanitation Act, pre-entry testing for avian influenza, continuous health monitoring of the birds, and stringent biosecurity protocols are recommended. Records of entries should be retained for two years and made available to the Department upon request if needed for traceability.

No poultry exhibitions regardless of their funding, association, or venue may occur within a 10 km control zone of a premises infected with Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza pursuant to Pa. B. 2597 General Quarantine Order, Virus Control for Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza Poultry, Poultry

3. Changes for poultry and poultry products in 2024: These 2024 Animal Health Requirements and Recommendations for Animal Exhibition, Including Commercial

Exhibition, will reference the April 16, 2022 General Quarantine Order; Cancellation of Exhibition of Poultry and Their Hatching Eggs Due to Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza or its successor Order, which may allow for limited exhibition of poultry and poultry products at venues that receive funding pursuant to the Pennsylvania Agricultural Fair Act referenced above, provided that the Department has determined that there are currently no active HPAI control areas or surveillance zones in place in Pennsylvania.

If there are currently no active HPAI control areas or surveillance zones in place in Pennsylvania, the exhibition of market poultry which will be moved directly to slaughter, unfertilized eggs, and ornamental feathers may be allowed, at the Department's discretion. The Department will provide notification to fair managers if any active HPAI control areas or surveillance zones are in place in Pennsylvania at the beginning of the 2024 fair season and will provide updates throughout the season as necessary. The placement of a HPAI control area or surveillance zone in Pennsylvania will result in the immediate reinstatement of the prohibition of exhibition for all poultry and all poultry products.

4. Exhibition of arts and crafts using poultry feathers may be allowed at the Department's discretion. The Department will provide notification to fair managers before the 2024 fair season begins and will provide any updates as necessary throughout the season as necessary. Poultry feathers, including shafts and down, may be allowed for arts and crafts at exhibitions if they meet the following requirements:

- (a) Shall be sourced and packaged in the United States or meet United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) import requirements.
- (b) Shall be washed or steam-treated and dried before packaging.

5. Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI). This is an official document issued by a federal, state, tribal, or accredited veterinarian certifying that the animals identified on the document have been inspected and were found to satisfy the regulations pertaining to their intended movement—within the same state, between states, or internationally.

- (a) CVIs are required for all swine, both from out-of-state and from in-state, and out-of-state camelids, cattle, cervids, equines, goats, sheep, and rabbits. For in-state camelids, cattle, cervids, equines, goats, sheep, and rabbits, these guidelines list a CVI as recommended. A CVI serves as verification of animal ID, an attestation of health, an attestation of a Veterinarian-client-patient-relationship (VCPR), and documentation of applicable vaccination and testing.

The Great Stoneboro Fair

- (b) The parameters for a CVI are included under the standards for veterinary accreditation, which are set by the USDA and are in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), which can be referenced at the following link: eCFR: 9 CFR 161.4 -- Standards for accredited veterinarian duties.
- (i) Per the CFR, a veterinarian may write a CVI if they have examined an animal within the last 10 days (unless the veterinarian is doing qualifying regular herd/flock checks; see the CFR for details.)
 - (ii) Per the CFR, once a veterinarian issues a CVI, the CVI expires after 30 days.
 - (iii) A CVI should be written for only one destination. However, multiple CVIs (one for each destination) can be written within 10 days after the inspection/examination of the animals.
 - (iv) CVIs issued by an accredited veterinarian are legal documents and shall only be issued if the animal is not showing clinical evidence compatible with the presence of a communicable disease upon inspection and/or examination.
 - (v) A copy of the CVI is provided to the owner, and the appropriate remaining CVI paper copies, regardless of if they are completed for interstate or intrastate movement, must be submitted to the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture Bureau of Animal Health at 2301 N. Cameron St. Harrisburg, PA 17110. Alternatively, electronic CVIs may be used.
- (c) An accredited veterinarian may not complete a CVI that does not meet USDA standards.
- (d) A Veterinarian-client-patient-relationship (VCPR) form may be used to verify animal ID and provide an attestation of a VCPR. VCPR forms do not have the 30-day expiration that is federally mandated for CVIs.
- (e) All swine for exhibition must be accompanied by a CVI that was issued by a licensed and accredited veterinarian within the 30 days prior to the date of the animal exhibition.

6. Verification of Veterinarian-client-patient-relationship (VCPR): The Animal Exhibition Sanitation Law requires attestation that a VCPR exists for all animals to be exhibited. This attestation states that the owner or caretaker of the animal has assumed responsibility to consult a veterinarian and has agreed to follow the instructions of the veterinarian in relation to animal diseases and implementing best management practices intended to reduce and prevent disease. This requirement can be fulfilled by any of the following means:

- (a) A Veterinarian-client-patient-relationship (VCPR) form with a veterinarian's signature (see Subchapter D).
- (b) A statement for the animal(s) being exhibited with a signature of the owner or caretaker on the fair registration form: "I attest and affirm that a "VCPR" exists with regard to any animals I will be exhibiting." (This statement does not replace the Owner Endorsed Avian Health Certificate and Biosecurity Statement or a CVI where required).

The Great Stoneboro Fair

- (c) A valid CVI.
- (d) For poultry and poultry products, this requirement may be fulfilled by the Owner Endorsed Avian Health Certificate and Biosecurity Statement (see Subchapter D).

- 7. Owner Endorsed Avian Health Certificate and Biosecurity Statement—Poultry: For allowed market poultry, unfertilized eggs, and ornamental feathers being exhibited, a completed Owner Endorsed Avian Health Certificate and Biosecurity Statement must accompany the market birds, eggs, or feathers for entry into the exhibition premises. This is an official form provided by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.
- 8. Other recommendations for exhibitors: The Department strongly recommends that animals returning home from exhibitions be isolated from other members of the herd or flock for a minimum of three weeks to help prevent the spread of disease and recommends that exhibitors of all animals discuss the health of their animals, including vaccine recommendations and other preventative measures, with a veterinarian on a regular basis. Owners and their veterinarians should carefully check and comply with additional requirements specific to each exhibition prior to the exhibition to ensure eligibility. The Department also encourages livestock and poultry owners to register their premises with the Department so they can be contacted in a disease emergency situation. Call 717-787-4172 to register a premises.
- 9. Reporting of suspected dangerous transmissible diseases: Please call the Department immediately to report any suspicions of diseases such as avian influenza, foot and mouth disease, African swine fever, and other transmissible diseases. The contact number is: 717772-2852, option 1, 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. Reporting of signs and symptoms that are consistent with a dangerous transmissible disease is legally required by the Domestic Animal Law (3 Pa.C.S. § 2327).
- 10. Interstate and intrastate movement of domestic animals: It is illegal, under section 2323 (related to health requirements) of the Domestic Animal Law, to "...knowingly, recklessly or negligently import or bring into this Commonwealth without written permission of the department any domestic animal that is contaminated with a hazardous substance or that is infected with or that has been exposed to any transmissible disease...or bring into this Commonwealth any domestic animal in violation of any of the provisions of [the Domestic Animal Law], an order entered under the authority of [the Domestic Animal Law] or an attendant regulation to prevent the introduction of any transmissible disease...or have in his keeping or possession any domestic animal imported, brought into or transported within this Commonwealth in violation of any of the provisions of [the Domestic Animal Law] or to allow any such domestic animal to come into contact with any other domestic animal." (3 Pa.C.S. § 2323(a) and (b)).
- 11. Biosecurity guidelines: It is recommended that Exhibition Managers follow the Biosecurity Guidelines for Exhibition Managers, included in Subchapter D, and provide exhibitors with a copy of Keeping Your Show Animals Healthy-Biosecurity Guidelines for Exhibitors, included in Subchapter D.

SUBCHAPTER B:

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PENNSYLVANIA FARM SHOW COMPLEX

The Great Stoneboro Fair

- 1. Rabies vaccination requirements: There are rabies vaccination requirements for vaccineeligible animals exhibited at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex ("complex"). For all animal exhibition events held at the complex, animal species for which a rabies vaccine is labeled for use shall be vaccinated prior to exhibition in the complex. All age-eligible animals of those livestock species must be vaccinated according to label directions within the 12 months preceding entry to the event at the complex. For example, feeder/prospect class animals would be required to be vaccinated to be exhibited and return home. For animal species in which there is not a rabies vaccine product labeled for use (e.g., camelids, goats, swine), extra-label use of a vaccine is at the discretion of the exhibitor's veterinarian.

All rabies-vaccinated animals exhibited at the complex must be accompanied by a rabies vaccination certificate consistent with the National Association of State Public Health Veterinarians (NASPHV) guidelines, or the vaccination information must be included on the CVI or Veterinarian-client-patient-relationship (VCPR) form. The vaccine product administered, serial number, date of vaccination, and name of the veterinarian who performed the vaccination should be listed with the official ID of the animal(s) or the name(s) and written physical description(s) and on the CVI or VCPR.

- 2. Identification (ID): There are ID requirements specific to the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex. Cattle, swine, sheep, and goats must be identified with a 15 digit 840 ISO-compliant RFID ear tag. The only exception to this will be for cattle who were identified using a 900 series 15-digit ISO-compliant tag placed before January 1, 2015. No other exceptions will be granted. A person exhibiting at the complex shall distinguish between 840 tags with RFID capabilities versus 840 tags that do not have those capabilities prior to placing identification in an animal that is to be exhibited. Questions about ID should be addressed to the Department at 717-8841613.

The Great Stoneboro Fair

Biosecurity Guidelines for Exhibition Managers

Many diseases of animals can be spread easily through direct contact between animals, through sharing of equipment, and through the air. People can also spread disease on their hands, clothing and footwear. According to the CDC, about 60% of known infectious diseases in people can be spread from animals, about 75% new or emerging infectious diseases in people come from animals.

There are four important goals of an effective biosecurity plan:

1. Protect animals from disease,
2. Protect exhibitors from disease, and
3. Protect the public from disease.
4. Allow the show to continue with minimal interruption due to animal disease.

Animal exhibitions/shows can lead to an increased risk of disease spread between animals, for several reasons—animals from multiple places congregate at these locations; animals are often stressed from being transported and from all the unusual sights and sounds at the show; and they may be exposed to animals with inapparent health issues.

For this reason, all show managers and exhibitors should have standard biosecurity protocols in place, to include:

Show Managers- At the Show:

Animals:

1. Make arrangements with a veterinarian in advance to oversee animal health for the event, and to be on call to respond to any concerns, including animal health emergencies.
2. Ensure the Animal Health requirements are publicized and clearly stated. Requirements should be as stringent as possible.
3. Ensure that all animals meet the requirements before entry. Require that animals arrive only during specified check-in times with appropriately trained inspectors there to check paperwork.
4. Have appropriately trained inspectors monitor the health of the animals throughout the event (this includes swine health monitors).
5. Contact the show veterinarian with any animal health concerns. The Department of Agriculture should be contacted if an inspector or veterinarian suspects a reportable disease. Designated caretakers should be assigned to these animals until it is determined that they may be moved back to the farm of origin.

6. Waterfowl for exhibit should be kept separate and apart from other poultry in a biosecure manner.

Animal Barns:

1. Clean and disinfect animal buildings and pens, and allow them to dry, before moving animals onto the grounds. Follow label directions and safety instructions for mixing and using disinfectants.
2. Manage the number of animals in each pen or coop to avoid overcrowding and overheating.

Keeping Your Show Animals Healthy-Biosecurity Guidelines for Exhibitors—2024

A show can be stressful for your animals. Transportation, unfamiliar housing, new sources of water, new noises, being around different animals, etc. can all cause stress. Stress causes physical changes in their bodies, and their immune systems can be affected, making them more susceptible to becoming sick and spreading disease to other animals. You need to be proactive to protect your animals. The following guidelines can be used to help you do this.

BEFORE THE SHOW

Keep your animals healthy

- Have your animals checked on at least an annual basis by a veterinarian, and contact your veterinarian anytime you think an animal is acting "off". You know your animals better than anyone else does.
- Check the animal health requirements and recommendations of the show so you are prepared.
- Follow your veterinarian's recommendations for vaccinations for each animal. Vaccinate far enough in advance so your animals are protected before the show and maintain records of any vaccinations and testing done prior to the show.

Biosecurity is critical:

- Biosecurity is defined as procedures intended to protect animals or people against disease.
- If your animals are showing signs of illness, or have been exposed to sick animals, keep them home and call your veterinarian.
- If you raise multiple species of poultry, it is recommended that waterfowl are kept separate and apart from other poultry in a biosecure manner.
- Before the show, make sure the truck and trailer are visibly clean and sanitary.
- Before packing up for the show, make sure your tack box and any stall equipment has been cleaned and disinfected.
- Take only clean tack to the show.

DURING THE SHOW

- Keep your animals' stalls or pens clean and dry, and dispose of manure in the proper location.
- Monitor your animals closely for any signs of illness and report any concerns to the show manager or veterinarian.
- Keep your animals cool to avoid overheating.
- Maintain good ventilation in the stall or pen—use fans placed outside of the animals' reach if necessary and if allowed by the show management.
- Avoid nose-to-nose contact between your animals and other exhibitors' animals.
- Don't share equipment, feed or water buckets, or tack with other exhibitors.
- Don't use shared equipment in a wash area or milking area, and try to keep your animals from touching walls or tie chains that other animals have touched.
- Always keep clean, fresh water available to your animals.
- Keep dust to a minimum.
- Prevent the public and other exhibitors from touching or feeding your animals.
- Wash or sanitize your hands frequently, to protect your animals and for your own safety.
- Avoid eating or drinking in the animal area.

AFTER THE SHOW

- Isolate any animals that were at the show from the rest of your animals at home for at least 2 weeks for livestock and 3 weeks for poultry, and watch them carefully for any signs of illness.
- Care for the animals that were at the show after you care for the other animals, and always wear clean clothing and shoes or boots to care for the other animals.
- Don't share equipment between the animal groups during the isolation period.

OWNER ENDORSED AVIAN HEALTH CERTIFICATE AND BIOSECURITY STATEMENT 2024

Introduction: Highly pathogenic avian influenza is a fatal and contagious disease of poultry, and has led to the loss of more than 65 million birds in the US since 2022. The virus causing this disease can be spread by infected poultry, on poultry products such as feathers and eggs, on clothing and other fomites such as packing materials, and through the air. However, if all protocols for reducing the risk of spreading disease are followed, certain poultry, feathers and eggs may be exhibited, at the Department's discretion.

A completed Owner Endorsed Avian Health Certificate and Biosecurity Statement must accompany all avian species (including poultry), eggs, and feathers to a Pennsylvania exhibition. The certificate must be presented to exhibition management prior to cooping of all avian species or displaying of eggs or feathers. This form must be endorsed with the bird, egg, or feather owner's signature.

Avian. Related to birds.

Poultry. The term "poultry" includes all domesticated fowl, including chickens, turkeys, ostriches, emus, rheas, cassowaries, waterfowl, and game birds (pheasants, partridge, quail, grouse, and guineas); but excludes doves, pigeons, psittacine and passerine birds.

As established in the current Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture Animal Health Requirements and Recommendations for Animal Exhibition, Including Commercial Exhibition, an Owner Endorsed Avian Health Certificate and Biosecurity Statement must accompany avian species and poultry products to all animal exhibitions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
